Reformation Sunday Observed, October 25, 2026

Weekly Memory Verse from LCMS: For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. Ephesians 2:8–9

November Newsletter: It is neatly laid out on the table in the hallway. Don't leave without picking yours up. We are creatures of habit. If we leave through one door, that is where we head. You are asked to change that habit. Today your habit is, get your newsletter!

Family Night is TONIGHT Family Night is tonight at 5:30. Here are the details...

Women's Bible Study meets Wednesday at 10:00am. We are working through Proverbs. Chapter 26 is our focus this week.

Amanda Bradley will be there to ask if you have questions. There are flyers on the table. And if you can't be with us, your donation of candy is greatly appreciated. Turn your Clocks back
Saturday, October 31st

It's Time for the Food Baskets: We began last Sunday and are collecting through Saturday, November 21st. Collecting what? We are collecting non-perishable food items for the food baskets. Food will be collected in the baskets left on the table in the Education Building. We will be delivering 12 food baskets to House of Faith families plus some of Our Savior shut-ins. Shut-ins that can not have a food basket will receive a special gift. Thank-you for your generous support. Social Ministry Director, Jill Koslan

Next Sunday is All Saints Day. This will be our focus. In the service we will remember by name the saints of our family at Our Savior who were called home since November 1, 2025.

Our Quilters Are A Blessing: Yesterday we blessed the work the quilters do twice a month. The quilts were laid out over the pews, and you will see that picture soon. Between 100 and 150 quilts! They will be taken to Buchanan Dam to the receiving center for Orphan Grain Train which will distribute them all over the world. Orphan Grain Train is a Recognized Service Organization (RSO) of the LCMS. Their headquarters are in Norfolk, Nebraska.

It's Only Fitting: John 8:36 – “So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.” Today we celebrate Reformation Day! Luther is rightly remembered as a champion of the Gospel — but he also called himself “the apostle of good works.” For, only by being set free by the Gospel, can we do good works. Jesus has set us free: His blood covers our sins, and now we stand before God as His beloved children, invited to live our lives to His glory for the good of His kingdom.

Life Quote: “Today God continues to defend and aid His people, those who trust in His Son as their Savior. God is ever with us. He preserves His Word and Church despite the constant attack of the devil, the unbelieving world, and false teachers. God provides for all our needs of body and soul, even in times of great need and conflict. God is our refuge. His Word endures forever. His grace and power never fail.” From “Meditations on Favorite Scriptures: Devotions for a Year” – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life •
